This was a cute hidden object game with some very difficult items to find. I liked that there was no countdown timer, but rather I had to climb the leaderboards to get 3 stars on a puzzle. The 360 room scrolling made object finding more challenging to do quickly. I liked that the items in the puzzle changed each time the puzzle was re-done to improve my star rating; and now that I've finished all puzzles in about 2 1/2 hours, there is supposed to be more items and challenges =]. I recommend this for some casual, quiet fun with great graphics and objects for a super low price. wow! Cool game! Let's start with the design ... the interface is very simple and clear, all this is expressed through bright and pleasant colors of shades, the whole game came out very colorful, which gives a big plus to the game. The game is interesting, the task is to look for different things, with each level of things more and more difficult to find, which adds interest to the game. All this is accompanied by a pleasant and soothing music. Also in the game there is a board of honor and a small number of achievements. The game is not demanding of a computer, which is important for each player! I am pleased, thank you!. Hidden Object Search at its core. And nothing else. No story, no puzzles, just find 'em all for a limited time. Not worth your time, truly.
